

HIGHLAND SOD FARMS, INC.

1377 Hutcherson Lane,
 Elizabethtown, KY 42701
 270-769-1005

highlandsodfarms@windstream.net

We're Your Lawn Experts

FOR NEW SOD, KEEP THE ENTIRE TOP MAT MOIST AT ALL TIMES UNTIL ROOTS HAVE PENETRATED SOIL, THEN WATER AS WEATHER DICTATES

Kentucky Info.	JAN	FEB	MARCH	APRIL	MAY	JUNE	JULY	AUG	SEPT	OCT	NOV	DEC
Soil Conditions	LIME Ground Limestone Granular Lime			Bluegrass can be grown on any kind of soil, if not too sandy. The only exception is soil that is too acid. Liming should be done every year.						LIME Ground Limestone Granular Lime
Seeding						(1) Sow seed on freshly raked ground (2) Rake in lightly (3) Do not attempt to cover all the seed		Bluegrass, Fine Fescue Tall Fescue
Fertilization			1st Application of Regular Fertilizer 80-80-80		2nd Application of Regular Fertilizer 18-46-60				3rd Application Regular Fertilizer 80-80-80
Pre-Emergent Crabgrass Controls			Combination Crabgrass Control with or without Fertilizer			Combination Crabgrass Control
Broadleaf Weed Control					Chickweed - Henbit Use Liquid Chickweed Killer		Dandelions & Broadleaf Weeds Liquid Weedkillers
Lawn Diseases			Mildew Leafspot Melting Out							Mildew Leafspot
Insect Control							White - Grub Control	Sod - Webworm Control Sprays - apply at two week intervals Dry Materials - apply at 1 month interval
Mowing Bluegrass, Tall Fescue, Rye Grass					Mow 3.5" high Best mowing practices, remove only 1/2 - 3/4 inch per mowing
Watering					Water 1" per week as weather dictates Water before soil becomes dry

LAWN RENOVATION	(1) Mow Lawn Short (1/2") (2) Power Rake (3) Clean off debris	(4) Seed (5) Fertilize (6) Cover seed with straw - maintain mulch cover on bare ground	(7) Water Regularly until grass is up, then water as weather dictates every 5 - 7 days
------------------------	---	--	--